

NOGA GAVRIELI

CURRICULUM VITAE

Phone: (052) 851-2843

Email: nogagav@gmail.com

Education

2017-2020 B.Sc. Marine Sciences and Marine Environment at Ruppin College, Faculty of Marine Sciences. Graduated with honors.

- Underwater research & methods scientific diver course
- Grade 30 skippers License

Research project under Prof. Gitai Yahel's supervision. small-scale ecological effects of invading bivalves on the sublittoral macroalgae community of the Levant.

- An in-situ experiment involving scientific diving skills.
- Laboratory and data analysis techniques.

Professional experience

2019-Today 'EcoOcean - For the Marine Environment' association-

- Volunteer's community manager
- Project manager at the education team.
- Marine environment instructor.

2020 Participation in oceanographic research cruises with Dr. Laura Steindler lab

- Experience in oceanographic methods such as Rosset and CTD operation

2019 Research assistant at Prof. Gitai Yahel lab

- Participation in underwater in-situ ecological research, Conduction of various lab analyses.

2018-2020 Private tutoring for students

In undergraduate courses such as physics, chemistry, calculus.

2017-2018 Instructor for youth at risk

"Ziv Neorim" marine education non-profit organization.

2015-2017 Community and events manager at Mesh- Modiin Entrepreneurs' Startup Hub

Leading and managing the business' customer community. Organizing professional talks and events.

2012-2015 Operations Officer, Cooperation unit

Air operation worker, Bell AH-1 Cobra unit

Volunteer work

- 2016 CIWY – wildlife rescue, rehabilitation, and care. Madidi National Park, 2016 Bolivia.
All hands and hearts – disaster relief with smart response model. Ecuador

Computer skills

MS Office, ODV, Bio Edit, Jmp, Coralnet, Labelbox, R

Languages: Hebrew -Native language, English- Proficient